CURRENT LAW	PROPOSED – TASK FORCE REVIEW	PROPOSED - NEW
A.R.S. § 32-2314 C. An applicant for qualifying party licensure shall: 2. Present evidence satisfactory to the acting director that the person has sufficient education or experience in the use of or supervising the use of a pesticide covered by each category for which the person is applying as demonstrated by having had within five years immediately preceding application either: (a) Three thousand verifiable hours of practical experience in the business of pest management. (b) Two thousand verifiable hours of practical field experience in the business of pest management and have successfully completed at least twelve semester hours or its equivalent in entomology, the eradication or management of weeds, general horticulture, plant pathology or any combination of these subjects directly related to each category for which the person is applying. R4-29-204 C. In addition to the form required under subsection (B), an applicant shall submit: 2. Evidence of the hours of practical experience required under A.R.S. § 32-2314(C)(2) in each category for which the applicant seeks licensure. Evidence that is acceptable to the Commission includes: a. A completed Verification of Practical Experience form that is signed by a business or qualifying party licensee or another person with first-hand knowledge of the applicant's experience and notarized; b. Payroll records, invoices, route sheets, or calendars; c. Letters from persons with first-hand knowledge of the applicant's experience; and d. An official transcript from an educational institution at which the applicant completed relevant course work;	R4-29-204 C.2. Possess one of the following qualifications: a. Certification as an applicator under this chapter for twenty four months within the five years preceding the application in the category applied for. b. Certification as an applicator under this chapter for twelve months within the five years preceding the application and successful completion of twelve semester hours or its equivalent within the ten years preceding the application in pest management courses directly related to each category applied for. c. Certification as an applicator under this chapter for twelve months within the five years preceding the application and a Bachelor's degree ... d. Twenty four months of experience in the business of structural pest management, in another State where licensure was not required, within the ten years preceding application directly related to the category applied for.	R4-29-204 C.2. Possess one of the following qualifications: a. Certification as an applicator under this chapter for twenty four months within the five years preceding the application in the category applied for. b. Certification as an applicator under this chapter for twelve months within the five years preceding the application and successful completion of twelve semester hours or its equivalent within the ten years preceding the application in pest management courses directly related to each category applied for. c. Certification as an applicator under this chapter for twelve months within the five years preceding the application and a Bachelor's degree ... d. Twenty four months of experience in the business of structural pest management, in another State where licensure was not required, within the ten years preceding application directly related to the category applied for. 3. For an individual seeking to qualify under subsections (C)(2)(a)-(c), possess at least five hundred hours of [~~actual field work~~ OR experience in the business of structural pest management] for each year of required certification as an applicator directly related to the category applied for. Records A. A business licensee shall maintain records sufficient to show an employee's time spent on actual field work in each certification category over the past five years in which the business has or had a qualifying party. B. A business licensee, qualifying party or branch supervisor shall provide the Office with a written certification of an individual's dates of employment and number of hours spent on actual field work for the business in each certification category over the past five years within one week of a written request of the individual.

BROADENING
R4-29-212 C. To broaden a qualifying party license, the licensed qualifying party shall: 3. Submit the evidence required under R4-29-204(C)(2) for the category in which broadening is sought,	E. A certified qualified applicator (QA) may become certified in the categories of right-of-way pest management or ornamental and turf pest management without meeting the requirements of subsection (C)(2) if the QA is currently certified in the category of industrial, institutional, structural and health related pest management, wood-destroying organism management, right-of-way pest management or ornamental and turf pest management. F. A certified qualified applicator (QA) may become certified in the category of wood-destroying organism management without meeting the requirements of subsection (C)(2) if the QA is currently certified in the category of industrial, institutional, structural and health related pest management.	E. A certified qualified applicator (QA) may become certified in the categories of right-of-way pest management or ornamental and turf pest management without meeting the requirements of subsections (C)(2)-(3) if the QA is currently certified in the category of industrial, institutional, structural and health related pest management, wood-destroying organism management, right-of-way pest management or ornamental and turf pest management. F. A certified qualified applicator (QA) may become certified in the category of wood-destroying organism management without meeting the requirements of subsections (C)(2)-(3) if the QA is currently certified in the category of industrial, institutional, structural and health related pest management.